DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY
GEOGRAPHY 3462G – 2018
LAND USE PLANNING

Wednesday, 3:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m., Room AHB – 1B06

Instructor: Steve Evans, Room 2221 SSC
Manager of Planning,
County of Elgin
Telephone: 519-631-1460 ext. 126 (County of Elgin Administration Office)
E-mail: sevans4@uwo.ca
Office Hours: 3:00 – 3:30 p.m. Wednesdays or by appointment

Course Description: The theories and practice of community planning including a review of planning legislation in Ontario, techniques for preparing Official Plans, regulating land use and the role of citizen participation. Prerequisite: Third or fourth year status – half course.

The course content will include an in-depth examination of land use planning principles, techniques and processes including Provincial legislation found in the Ontario Planning Act and its Policy Statement. The course will be conducted in the form of an advanced seminar with strong participatory input expected from students based on assigned readings, attendance at Planning Committee meetings and an in-class mock public meeting techniques assignment. Such input will contribute toward the participation portion of the course mark. In addition to attendance at classes, students will be required to complete the necessary background readings and assignments including a mid-term exam and multiple choice quizzes.

Attendance at a City of London Planning and Environment Committee Meeting and/or City Council Meeting, or other public planning meeting during the winter semester is required. Committee Meetings for the City of London are held in the City Council Chambers on the second floor at City Hall, 300 Dufferin Ave. starting at 4:00 p.m. (see information sheet for dates and times).

Students are required to obtain or have continued access to the following texts: The Ontario Planning Act R.S.O. 1990 as amended and Planning Canadian Communities (6th edition) by Gerald Hodge and David Gordon. Readings from these two publications are listed on the course outline. The Hodge text is available at The Book Store; the Planning Act is available on-line. Other pertinent readings may be announced during class. Land Use Planning Made Plain (Second Edition) by Hok-Lin Leung is recommended as supplemental reading and is available at the book store.

Geography 3462G - General Information - Student Participation

Class participation accounts for 20% of the course mark. Attendance, involvement in class discussions, research and presentation of a land use planning article(s) of student's choice, and the mock public meetings techniques class on March 21, 2018 are all important aspects of your participation mark. Students are also required to attend at least one Planning Committee Meeting and/or City Council Meeting, prior to March 21st, to contribute toward the participation portion of the course mark. You are required to submit a one page summary of the topics discussed at the meeting(s) you attend including the names of committee/council members in attendance. Summaries shall be typed and submitted to the instructor no later than April 4, 2018.
